Dear Friend,

Welcome to the eighth annual Montana Film Festival, hosted by the Roxy Theater, Missoula's Community Cinema.

When we finalized this year's MTFF lineup, landing on seven features and 21 shorts, one thing stood out: many of the films were about adventure, of one form or another. There's a harrowing expedition into the Rocky Mountain wilderness, and an elegiac road trip across the Midwest. There's an acid trip in the California desert, and a modern-day cattle drive across Idaho. There's a solitary horseback ride in the highlands of the Philippines, a covert mission to smuggle a forbidden masterpiece into Communist Europe, even a fantastic odyssey into the broken landscape of a woman's dreams. The cinematic journeys presented at this year's MTFF vary wildly, but one thing remains constant: they leave the characters who embark on them—and the viewer—forever changed.

MTFF has always championed bold, independent films which demand the big screen and the shared space of the theater, taking the audience somewhere it's never been before. This year is no exception. We want to thank you for joining us on these adventures, and for taking the time to watch cinema. We promise it will be worth the trip.

With love,
Team MTFF

★ FEATURE FILM SELECTIONS ★

BITTERBRUSH 98 MIN
Dir. Emelie Mahdavian

Hollyn and Colie are range riders who are spending their last summer herding cattle in remote Idaho. Totally off the grid, with only their dogs as companions, they brave inclement weather and perilous work conditions while pondering their futures.

BUTCHER'S CROSSING 105 MIN
Dir. Gabe Polsky
Prod. Amanda Nelson, Molly Conners, Andy Mason, Will Clark, and Jeri Rafter
Feat. Nicolas Cage and Fred Hechinger

Based on the acclaimed novel by John Williams, Butcher's Crossing follows an Ivy League drop-out as he travels to the Colorado wilderness in 1873, joining a team of buffalo hunters on a journey that puts both his life and sanity at risk.

FUNNY PAGES 86 MIN
Dir. Owen Kline
Prod. Sebastion Bear-McClard, Oskar Boyson, Ronald Bronstein, David Duque-Estrada, and Benny and Josh Safdie

A teenage cartoonist rejects the comforts of his suburban life and leaves home, finding an unwilling mentor and unwitting friend in Wallace, a low-level comic artist.

GLORIOUS 79 MIN
Dir. Rebekah McKendry
Prod. Christian Armogida, Morgan Peter Brown, Jason Scott Goldberg, and Bob Portal
Feat. Ryan Kwanten and J.K. Simmons

A hungover and heartbroken man finds himself trapped in a rest stop bathroom with a strange disembodied voice who says he may be the only hope in stopping a catastrophic event.

QUANTUM COWBOYS 99 MIN
Dir. Geoff Marslett
Feat. Lily Gladstone, Kiowa Gordon, John Way, and appearances by David Arquette, Gary Farmer, Alex Cox, Anna Karina, and Neko Case

Two hapless drifters, Frank and Bruno, team up with the resourceful cowgirl Linde to recover her land, trekking across 1870's Southern Arizona to find an elusive frontier musician. A comedy that melds innovative animation with classic western iconography, quantum physics with philosophical musings.

THE UNKNOWN COUNTRY 85 MIN
Dir. Morrisa Maltz
Prod. Katherine Harper, Laura Heberton, Thomas Heitkamp, and Morissa Maltz

An invitation to reunite with her estranged Oglala Lakota family launches a grieving young woman (Lily Gladstone) on an unexpected road trip toward the Texas-Mexico border. This largely solitary journey with an unknown destination grows increasingly surreal.

STRANGER THAN PARADISE IN 35MM 89 MIN
Dir. Jim Jarmusch
Prod. Sara Driver

Jim Jarmusch's 1982 film follows rootless Hungarian émigré Willie, his pal Eddie, and his visiting sixteen-year-old cousin, Eva, as they drift from New York's Lower East Side to the snowy expanses of Lake Erie and the drab beaches of Florida.

Preceded by the short film Stranger Than Rotterdam which chronicles producer Sara Driver's quest to smuggle Stranger Than Paradise across the Atlantic Ocean into the Rotterdam Film Festival.

★ SHORT FILM SELECTIONS ★

This year's MTFF features two blocks of short films. To kick off the Montana Film Festival, we have Long Views, a block of 7 fantastic short (but not too short) films, from 5 different countries, presented free of charge. Then, on the last day of MTFF, enjoy a dozen fantastic shorts, ranging radically in genre, form, and content, but united by extraordinary artistry, in Short Takes.
